Applicants for citizenship aged 16 or 17 years – responsible parent declaration

The responsible parent is to complete the following declaration if the applicant is aged 16 or 17 years.

- I declare that I am the responsible parent of the applicant.
- I consent to the applicant's personal information being provided to the National Police Checking Service (NPCS) for the purpose of the NPCS conducting a National Police check in relation to the applicant as part of their application for Australian citizenship.
- I understand that this is for the purposes of assessing whether the Offences provision, as defined in section 24(6) of the Australian Citizenship Act 2007, applies to the applicant.
- I understand that more than one police check may be requested by the Department, including a further check that may be undertaken if the applicant is not approved as an Australian citizen and an appeal of the decision is requested.
- I acknowledge that the applicant's personal information will be disclosed to Australian police agencies for them to use for their respective law enforcement purposes including the investigation of any outstanding criminal offences.
- I acknowledge that I have read the National Police Checking Service – General Information and understand the spent convictions legislation.
- I understand that spent convictions of specific offences (5 years from the date of conviction for juvenile offenders) will be disclosed to the Department by Australian police agencies for the purposes outlined above.
- I have read the information contained in form 1442i Privacy notice.
- I understand the Department may collect, use and disclose the applicant's personal information (including biometric information and other sensitive information) as outlined in form 1442i Privacy notice.
